http://www.ecgi.org/codes/country_documents/uk/hampel_index.htm	The Hampel Report. Emphaised that the directors were responsible for relations with stakeholders, but that they were accountable to shareholders. Also emphasised the important role of institutional investors and asked them to make more	11

	considered use of their votes
http://www.ecgi.org/codes/country_documents/uk/combined_code.pdf	The Combined Code. Created by consolidating all the previous reports into one code and re-emphasising that the code required companies to operate on a 'comply or explain' basis. Also called for more stringent systems of internal control which should be reviewed on an annual basis by the directors	11
