

WEB SITES

CHAPTER 14: ACCOUNTING AND FINANCE

There are a large number of professional accounting bodies in the UK and the USA. Their web sites offer some access to information on key accounting procedures and some news and articles.

www.icaew.com (UK Chartered Accountants)

www.accaglobal.com (UK Association of Chartered Certified Accountants)

www.cimaglobal.com (UK Chartered Institute of Management Accountants)

www.cipfa.org.uk (UK Chartered institute of Public Financial Accountants)

www.aicpa.org (American Institute of Chartered Public Accountants)

www.imanet.org (American Institute of Management Accounting)

The following magazines offer a range of news articles, cases and comment on accounting practices.

www.accountancymagazine.com

www.accountancyage.com

Two UK government agencies offer help and advice on financing and running a business.

www.companieshouse.gov.uk

www.businesslink.gov.uk

Support for the Football finances case can be found in:

www.deloitte.com/view/en\_GB/UK/industries/sportsbusinessgroup/

www.guardian.co.uk/sport/football/footballpolitics/

www.footballeconomy.com (an independent web site about finances and governance in football).