

WEB SITES

CHAPTER 7: MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

In addition to the support for Chapter 7, many of the web sites listed below provide useful information for other chapters in the book, especially Chapters 8-14.

www.managers.org.uk (web site for the Chartered Institute of Management)

www.cranfieldknowledgeinterchange.com

A frequently changing series of discussions on all management issues by both academics and practitioners.

<http://knowledge.wharton.upenn.edu>

Similar to the Cranfield web site but focusing on academic views on practical business issues from the Wharton business School.

<http://hbr.or>

Cases, reviews and articles from a Harvard Business School web site.

www.strategy-business.com

News, articles and comment from some good authors. Produced by Booz and Company, an international consulting firm.

www.ft.com/uk/management

A series of changing articles on management issues from the Financial Times.

www.managementtoday.co.uk (news and opinions)

<http://management.about.com> (news, advice and blogs)

www.leadership.org.uk (web site of the leadership trust)

www.i-l-m.com (the Institute of Leadership and Management)

www.excellence-leadership.com (produced by the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants)

www.thinkingmanagers.com/business-management/leadership.php

A site aimed at giving managers useful summaries of articles dealing with management and leadership.

Up-to-date information on management and executive pay is available in:

www.guardian.co.uk/executivepay

An interesting US perspective is presented by the national organization for trade unions in:

www.aflcio/corporatewatch/paywatch