

Chapter 2

Review questions

1. Write down three examples of creative people. What characteristics do they share?
2. To what extent do you share these characteristics?
3. Explain what the difference is between a 'finder' and a 'seeker' in the context of entrepreneurship?
4. Entrepreneurship is always dependent upon being alert to opportunities.
True or False
5. 'Opportunities are found not created'. To what extent would you agree with this statement?
6. Entrepreneurs tend to be driven by extrinsic motivation not intrinsic motivation. Do you agree?
7. List the types of resources that might be recombined in the process of entrepreneurship.
8. Which of the following does the process of qualification involve:
a) transforming products
b) stabilizing products
c) making sure products don't change
9. Entrepreneurs are often described as being very skilled in organizing tasks. What sort of tasks do you think are the most important?
10. Entrepreneurship is an emergent phenomenon.
What does this mean?